1954 WILSON FRANKS - RARE

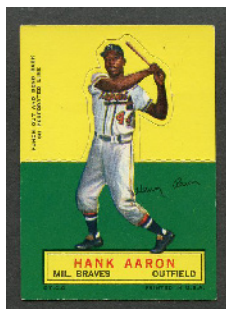

Issued with hot dogs, these cards are nearly impossible to find in nice grade. On top of that, they are difficult to find in general. One of the toughest issues of the 1950's - we were fortunate to find a set. We've broken it up to offer you the opportunity to add them to your collections. Cards all free of typical staining. Only one of each available.

1941 R324 GOUDEY

We recently broke up a set of the scarce 1941 Goudeys. This is the toughest of the Goudey sets to put together. The set is unique in that it has some obscure players whose only appearance on a card is in this set. Production of this set was halted when the U.S. entered World War II as paper production was limited.

1943 R302-1 M.P. & CO.

One of the only issues of cards produced during The War Years, these cards feature color "drawings." Originally produced in strips, these were sold primarily in candy stores. Big names – little prices for this 72 year old issue. Backs feature brief biographies. Cards were designed and produced by M.P. & Co., a New York City novelty and carnival supply company.
