1914 B18 BLANKETS

These 5-1/4" felt cloth square flannels were issued in 1914 and wrapped around popular brands of tobacco. Over the years these picked up the nickname "blankets" because many of them were sewn together to form blankets. There are many different color variations. Much more affordable than cards of the same era, these display great with nice eye appeal.

These fabulous 3-1/2" x 5-1/2" cards feature beautiful color art work of Hall of Famers. The backs feature leading moments of their careers. We were fortunate to pick up a nice grouping of authentic autographed cards including many deceased players. These cards were originally issued in series of 12 cards each during the mid-1980's and were an annual subscription. All were limited to 5000 – so each is individually numbered on the back. All of these are PSA/DNA pre-certified for authenticity. Only one of each available.

1889 TOBIN LITHOGRAPH BABY TALK TRADE CARDS

It's been years since we've offered this issue. These colorful 3" x 5" cards feature "baby talk" and were issued by dozens of different advertisers over 125 years ago. These rare cards have pretty decent looking VG-EX/EX fronts with the backs featuring some paper loss as they appear to have been removed from an album or scrapbook. They present very nice though. Only one of each available.
